

sinclairs decision to air a so called documentary about Senator Kerry this close to the election is clearly a violation of Campaign finance laws. If they want to air an infomercial for President Bush, it needs to be paid for by campaign funds. If they want to do swift boat 2, let them pay for it.